Auditor's Report.

Hampstead, N. H., Feb. 16, 1899.

We have this day examined the accounts of the Road Commissioners and find them correctly kept and properly vouched for.

CHARLES W. GARLAND, Selectmen EVERETT MOULTON, BENJAMIN W. CLARK. Hampstead.

Report of Trustees of Library.

The appreciation of the Library is best attested by the increased circulation of books. New names are being constantly added.

The reading room has been greatly appreciated by many. If the funds admitted of it your Trustees would gladly increase its usefulness by adding a larger number of magazines and papers.

For the present year you will find Review of Reviews, McClure's, St. Nicholas and Harper's Weekly.

The Trustees acknowledge a gift of valuable reference books from Mrs. Mary E. Eastman, the records of the sixth company in the Seventh Regiment, New Hampshire Militia, by Andrew M. Moulton.

The entry and library floor, by the courtesy of Daniel Emerson, has been graced by substantial rubber mats.

The Trustees have decided that the best way to give you a list of the new books, purchased from year to year, will be to have the same printed in the Town Report. You will find the additions for 1898 at the close of our report.

School Report.

We have had the usual number of weeks schooling, 34, this last year.

The Board of Education thinks forty weeks of schooling would be an improvement, and we hope to see that number in the near future. There is too much valuable time wasted in long vacations.

Our teachers have been interested in their work and have brought our schools up to a high standard of which we are justly proud.

We have had a fathers day in some of the schools which was well attended, and we would ask the voters to visit their schools more and see what is being done for the children.

Through the efforts of our teachers and scholars and with the help of friends, five of our school houses are furnished with organs.

There have been new seats put in Nos. 1 and 5, also a new floor in No. 5, new steps to No. 6, and new black boards in No. 7. The black boards in No. 7 are not, strictly speaking, boards, as they are of tin with mouldings to hold them in place, and they make the nicest kind of a surface to write on and are lasting.
